

5877      A blue and white ko-sometsuke porcelain incense burner in the form of a deer standing before a rock

China 17th century Ming dynasty

Dimensions: H. 6¾" x W. 3" x D. 2¾" (17cm x 7cm x 6.5cm)

Ko-sometsuke (lit. old blue and white) are porcelain items decorated in underglaze blue which were produced in China during the late Ming dynasty predominantly for the Japanese market.

gregg baker
asian art