

6788 A six-fold paper screen painted in ink and colour on a buff and gold ground depicting a river landscape. The central panels decorated with a profusion of flowers which include kiku (chrysanthemum), asagao (morning glory) and grasses. The left-hand panels with suzume (sparrows) perching on a fence and on a branch of snow-covered ume (plum) in bloom.

Japan 17th century Edo period

Dimensions: H. 36" x W. 114" (91cm x 289cm)