

7023 A cloisonné enamel vase with stylised plant design.

Seal: Hiro

Japan 20th century Shōwa period

Dimensions: H. 10" x Diam. 10" (25cm x 25cm)

Hiroaki Ōta (1933-1991). Born in Aichi prefecture, the centre of shippō (Japanese enamel) manufacture, Ōta studied enamel production and developed a free and expressive style. His work was exhibited at the Nitten and international exhibitions held in both America and France where he received numerous prizes. In 1981 he received a commission for a monumental enamel plaque for the City Hall in Toyota.

