

7511 Aijo Toshiro (b. 1921)

A black lacquer flower vessel of rectangular form with on a trapezoid base.

Signed: Toshi

Japan 20th century Shōwa period *1983

Dimensions: H. 17.5cm x W. 51.5cm x D. 18cm (7" x 20½" x 5¼")

Tomobako (original box) inscribed:

Lid: The first three characters are illegible. Urushi Kaki (lacquer flower vessel)

Lid interior: Ishikawaken Kōgei Sakka Senbatsuten Shuppin Shakuhin (Exhibit for Ishikawa Craftsmen Selected Exhibition)*

Signed: Toshi

Seal: Toshirō

Aijō Toshirō lived and worked in Wajima, Ishikawa Prefecture, and often exhibited in Nitten (The Japan Fine Art Exhibition).

*The Ishikawa Prefectural Museum of Art has confirmed this piece was exhibited at the 8th Exhibition of Ishikawa Craftsmen at the Ishikawa Prefectural Museum of Art in 1983.

gregg baker
asian art